

Shveta Singh is Associate Professor of Finance at the Department of Management Studies, Indian Institute of Technology (IIT Delhi), India. She teaches courses like Managerial Accounting and Financial Management, Indian Financial System and Security Analysis and Portfolio Management. Recently, she has developed a course on Corporate Governance and has also received training by the International Finance Corporation (IFC) in collaboration with the Indian Institute of Corporate Affairs (IICA), for the same. She has contributed to various consulting assignments for organizations like the Directorate General of Supplies & Disposals (DGS&D) and the National Buildings Construction Corporation (NBCC).

Overall, she has more than a decade of professional experience, having spent three years in the corporate sector prior to joining academics. She has published research papers in journals of national and international repute. She has co-authored a research monograph titled "Financial Management Practices: An Empirical Study of Indian Corporates" published by Springer (ISBN 978-81-322-0989-8). She has been honoured by the “Leadership” award which she accepted on behalf of IIT Delhi from the Institute of Business and Finance Research at the Global Conference on Business and Finance in USA. She also won the “Best in Session” award at the same conference. She was also honoured with the “Literati” award for outstanding research by Emerald Publishing Inc. She also received a mention for the “Most Downloaded Paper” by the Journal of Advances in Management Research, UK. Email: shvetasingh@dms.iitd.ac.in