

Shveta Singh is Associate Professor of Finance at the Department of Management Studies, Indian Institute of Technology (IIT Delhi), India. She is also the co-coordinator of the “National Centre for Business Ethics, Corporate Governance and CSR (NCBECG&CSR), a Centre of Excellence at IIT Delhi, accredited by the National Foundation on Corporate Governance (NFCG). She teaches courses like Managerial Accounting and Financial Management, Security Analysis and Portfolio Management and Corporate Governance. She has contributed to various consulting assignments for organizations like the Directorate General of Supplies & Disposals (DGS&D) and the National Buildings Construction Corporation (NBCC). She is also the co-Area Chair of Finance and the Programme Coordinator of the generic MBA programme at DMS.

Overall, she has more than a decade of professional experience, having spent three years in the corporate sector prior to joining academics. She has published more than 40 research papers in journals/conferences of national and international repute. She has co-authored 2 research monographs titled “Equity Market in India: Returns, Risk and Price Multiples” and "Financial Management Practices: An Empirical Study of Indian Corporates" published by Springer. She has been honoured by the “Leadership” award which she accepted on behalf of IIT Delhi from the Institute of Business and Finance Research at the Global Conference on Business and Finance in USA. She also won the “Best in Session” award at the same conference. She was also honoured with the “Literati” award for outstanding research by Emerald Publishing Inc. She also received a mention for the “Most Downloaded Paper” by the Journal of Advances in Management Research, UK. Email: shvetasingh@dms.iitd.ac.in; shvetasingh6@gmail.com.